The French had a term for in In World War 1,

In World War I, the Frenchman shrugged off every chortage, every dif-ficulty with the single phrase: "It's the War."

That's' the case now. When you ask' for JAX Beer, the Drink of Friendship, and find that your dealer is momentarily out of: JAX,' don't blame, your dealer. It's not his fault—nor ours. It's the war! ours. It's the war!

Unprecedented demands for JAX plus limited materials sometimes cause your limited materials sometimes cause your dealer to be tempôrarily without a supply of JAX. But he won't be without a supply of JAX. But he won't be without a supply for long because we're doing 'everything possible to keep everyone supplied with a fair share of the Drink of Priendship—and we're succeeding pretty well.

If your daher doesn't have JAX today, because this great beer is worth waiting for JAX because this great beer is worth waiting for, In fact you can't buy better beer at any price.

Appliances which are working improperly or not working at all are wasteful . . . and waste is one of our biggest wartime enemies.

Take such appliances — including cord and broken parts — to your repair dealer. Since appliances must last for the duration, it's more important than ever to keep them operating efficiently. They'll work better — last longer.

AIRAGOBRAS TESTED ON

When Bell Airacobras, deadly pursuit planes, are given the works on test flights their 1150 horsepower Allison engines are kept safely lubricated with Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil—the same quality Sinclair Pennsylvania sold by your nearby Sinclair Dealer.

Now that your car must last longer, keep it safely lubricated with the same quality oil that protects the Airacobra's engine at 395 m.p.h. Have your Sinclair Dealer drain and refill your crankcase with Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil every 1,000 askes. It lasts so long it saves money as well as your engine.
